

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

AGREEMENT FOR STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

CENTRAL WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

and the

TBILISI INSTITUTE OF ASIA AND AFRICA

With prior approval, students enrolled at Central Washington University may study at another institution to earn academic credit toward their degree program.

This agreement between Central Washington University and Tbilisi Institute of Asia and Africa (TIAA) entitles CWU students to attend TIAA and earn academic degree credit to be awarded by Central Washington University for successfully completed courses. TIAA will provide a transcript of each student's grades for completed courses indicating the student's level of achievement.

Central Washington University also requires that the enrollment of each student be verified by the host institution for the time specified by the student's program.
